Who: Arts and crafts artists. Vendors may share a booth. Demonstrations are encouraged but not mandatory.

Where: Oregon State Fairgrounds—Willamette Art Center, Salem, Oregon. Artists are invited to set up and man their own 10' x 10' booth or canopy in the area adjacent to the art center building.

When: July 12-15. Vendor booths must be open and manned from 10:00 AM to 8:00 PM daily. Booth setup will be Wednesday, July 11, and a pass will not be required that day.

Cost: A $100 fee for all four days. Artists will keep all proceeds. If the vendor would like to have electricity, there is an extra $45 fee.

Sign-up: Please provide a description of your artwork. A short bio and pictures would be helpful.

Deadline: The fee and application are due no later than May 31, 2018. Make checks payable to: Willamette Art Center. There will be no refunds due to cancellation.

Gate Passes: Artists receive two passes a day per booth. People who man their booth all four days will receive a 4-day wrist band instead of day passes.

Parking: Entrance to the fairgrounds for set-up through the yellow gate is only allowed before opening at 10:00 in the morning. Parking will be first come first serve. Handicapped parking will be outside of the yellow gate. There are no other designated parking areas. Vendors can enter through the green or silver fair gates with their pass.

Services: The WAC has water and two bathrooms for artist use. If necessary, you may store your merchandise in the WAC studio overnight, which is covered by a private security system. The MCF will provide added security at the fairgrounds after midnight.

Questions: Email salem.wac.mail@gmail.com or call 503-365-3911. Ask for Pam Baldwin or Margrethe Gregg.
